Flourishing & Full Circle

Belonging, capacity and joy

Keep all three in the picture.

Belonging

Being recognised, included and able to participate as oneself

Capacity

What the day costs, protects and restores

Joy

Interests, connection and authentic expression

Return to these when judging whether a change supports flourishing.

Bringing it all together

Table groups:

- 1 Each person shares the strongest thing they're taking back to their school: one minute each.
- 2 As a table, build the shared shortlist: the three ideas from this table most worth spreading.
- 3 Make each one concrete: who needs to hear it, and in which meeting or moment will you say it?

Start · Continue · Reconsider

On your action card, identify:

Start

One strategy to start something small you can start next week

Continue

One practice to continue something today confirmed you already do well

Reconsider

One approach to reconsider

something you would now do differently

For each, decide: How will you know it worked? What evidence will show it?

This card is yours. Share one thing on it with someone at your table.

Plan the next conversation

Start from your Session 5 bridge notes.

- 1 Choose the real conversation you'll have within two weeks:
with a student's family, the student themselves, or a colleague who teaches them
- 2 Plan it in your Participant Guide:
what I'll share (a strength first) · what I'll ask (specifically) · what I'll offer
- 3 Write your opening sentence, word for word
- 4 Note it: when, where, how

Final reflection

This morning you wrote what school is for, and what you were curious about. Read your own words back. What's different now?

Where were you this morning?

Where are you now?

In one sentence, for yourself: what will you do differently in your teaching?

Connections that continue

What are you curious to learn more about next? Look back at "What am I curious about today?" on page 5: how many of your questions got answered?

Good luck on your journey

Stay curious.
Keep students at the centre.

Take one thoughtful next step, include the people who hold relevant knowledge and review what happens. Small, informed changes can be refined through student voice, observation and partnership.
